

TEACHER WORKSHOP OPPORTUNITY!

Regional Public Lands as Outdoor Classrooms

Hosted by Partners for Education on Public Lands

When: September 8-9, 2006

Where: Brandon Spring Group Center
Land Between The Lakes (LBL)

Why: To assist teachers in planning educational field trips

Credit: 12 credit hours, confirm with your administration

Cost: $50 Registration fee (Lodging & meals will be provided).

A number of public land agencies along the Cumberland and Tennessee Rivers provide educational programs, activities, and study sites to enrich students' learning. We invite you to spend Friday night and Saturday exploring these opportunities through field trips, hands-on activities, play, and sharing ideas and resources. Field trip opportunities may include the Fort Donelson National Battlefield, Cross Creeks National Wildlife Refuge, and the environmental education facilities at Land Between The Lakes.

Please register by August 25. Additional information about the workshop will be mailed or emailed to you. If you have any questions, please contact Sharon Waltrip at 270-924-2038 or swaltrip@fs.fed.us. Workshop space is limited. For more information and objectives see:
